Volunteer Accountant (part-time)

Samasource is a startup social enterprise that helps small tech firms in very poor countries connect to a global client base, creating much-needed jobs among over 130 million skilled workers in Africa and rural Asia that remain unemployed.

We are a small, dynamic team composed of Harvard, Georgetown, and Dartmouth alums committed to changing the world through socially responsible business.

Our method focuses on 3 key areas:

1. Defining and promoting socially responsible outsourcing to U.S. clients
2. Training small and medium sized technology firms in very poor regions
3. Connecting small firms in Sub-Saharan Africa and South Asia to global markets for services

We seek a skilled accountant to join our team as a part-time volunteer, with a minimum commitment of 15 hours per week. Our offices are located in a loft building in downtown San Francisco, which we share with several exciting tech startups. This position works directly with the Founder and CEO.

We need someone with experience in the following:

- Accounting or bookkeeping experience
- Expense management
- Invoicing
- Familiar with online tools for billing

The ideal candidate will have at least 5 years of accounting in a startup environment, excellent oral and written communications skills and a comprehensive knowledge of industry standard accounting tools and methods.

We look forward to hearing from you. You can learn more online at <http://www.samasource.com> and by following our blog at <http://www.samasource.org>. Join our cause virtually on Facebook at <http://apps.facebook.com/causes/161487>. Apply via email to volunteer@samasource.org.
